Learn from pros working in the TV industry

The Educational Foundation of NATPE, the National Association of TV Program Executives, in association with WPHL-TV, WPHL-TV, The Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, and the Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia invite students and faculty from colleges and universities in the Philadelphia and surrounding areas to attend a FREE workshop on Saturday, April 12, 2008.

The day will start with breakfast at 8:00 a.m., presentations from 9:00 a.m. -12:30 p.m. followed by lunch and networking with the panelists. This is the 14th in an acclaimed series that has taken place in New York, Miami, New Orleans, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Austin, Washington DC, Boston, St. Louis, Phoenix, Atlanta and Denver.

The goal of the workshop is to inform students of the many careers in the communications field and to prepare and guide them through the process of working in the industry.

CAREER WORKSHOP INCLUDES:

- A panel discussion with representatives from various TV stations, production houses and ad agencies telling how they got started and what's it like to work in this exciting business.
- Topics addressed: preparing resumes, interviewing successfully, networking and developing a career strategy
- A general Q&A session
- Face-to-face interaction with the panelists
- 8:00 a.m. breakfast and 12:30 p.m. lunch
- Space is Limited

For planning purpose, all attendees are required to RSVP for the workshop to EdFound@natpe.org with "Career Workshop RSVP" in the subject line of the e-mail. Each RSVP will receive an e-mail confirmation with complete information pertaining to the event.
